

GAIN A REWARDING CAREER IN THE DEFENCE INDUSTRY

Get fee-free training and practical experience with Shoalhaven defence companies

The Defence Industry supports the Department of Defence with goods and services, and the Shoalhaven region is a hub for these companies. There are employment opportunities in a number of different workforces including manufacturing, engineering, electronics, welding, assembly of deployable infrastructure and aircraft maintenance.

This is a short, practical and experience based program that will provide you with the opportunity to apply for jobs in the Defence industry after 5 short weeks of study and 1 week of work experience at a local Defence business.
