

ARC Training Fees and Refund Policy and Procedure

Purpose

This policy and procedure outlines the actions ARC Training undertakes to ensure student fees are protected and refunds are provided where applicable. Furthermore, this policy will be communicated by ARC Training to prospective students through our website, <https://arctraining.edu.au/>, during pre-enrolment engagement and enrolment induction sessions by our enrolment officers.

Scope

This policy applies to:

- ARC students
- Sales Team Members
- Administration Officers
- Accounts Team
- Others

Aim

To ensure that ARC Training meets the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 and all other applicable legislation or government funding requirements.

Policy

ARC Training provides a clear outline for the protection of student fees paid and the guidelines for the refund of fees. ARC Training will ensure learners will be informed of all costs associated with training prior to enrolment. All fees stipulated and refund guidelines is aligned with the requirements of the funding bodies.

Procedure

Tuition Fees and other Fees

1. The Sales Team is responsible for informing the prospective students about relevant course fees, what is refundable and non-refundable and grounds to seek refunds.
2. In some cases, exemptions for payment of fees may be applicable where certain criteria is met for example, in the case of financial hardship or meeting concession criteria.
3. For any course which requires a fee payment in excess of $1500.00, the student will be required to pay by instalment on the basis of the course schedule. ARC Training will not collect any fees exceeding $1500.00 except for employers paying for their staff training.
4. All fees charged will be in line with the requirements for the state where the training takes place. Some states may require the use of a fee calculator to determine the fee the RTO can charge. Once the course fee is determined, the Sales Team Member will notify the student about the course fees and to seek their consent to process their enrolment application.
5. Students may pay the relevant fees, e.g., co-contribution fees either by credit card, bank transfer or Debit Success.
 - Credit card payment - the student will pay via NAB Transact.
 - Bank transfer - student to use the following information below:
Train Australia Pty Ltd
BSB: 082 330/Account Number: 570570064
Reference: use student name. Note: Student must send bank confirmation via an email to invoices@arctraining.edu.au

Refund Policy

Students must submit their completed refund request form to the Administration Team via email support@arctraining.edu.au to process their refund request.

1. There are several circumstances where a refund of fees will be available; see explanation below, please note that the enrolment fee* is non-refundable after the cooling off period of 48 hours. The cooling off period of 48 hours apply to all students from the time the enrolment form has been completed and submitted to ARC Training.

Employment Service Provider Students, also known as ‘Public Students’.

- The student or Job Active (JA) has overpaid any course related fees.
- ARC Training has cancelled the course.

- The Student or JA formally advises ARC Training within the “cooling off period,” being 48 hours or 2 business days after the enrolment form has been completed. ARC Training will refund the co-contribution fees if whole amount was paid by the student.
- ARC Training has determined that the student would be unreasonably disadvantaged if a refund did not occur.
- Any refund will be deposited by the Accounts Team to the student’s nominated bank account within 30 days of receiving an approved refund request.
- Enrolment/Administration fee, credit card or debit success charges are not refundable.

Fee for Service Students

- ARC Training has cancelled the course.
- The student advises ARC Training within the “cooling off period,” being 48 hours or 2 business days after the enrolment form has been completed. ARC Training will refund the whole amount if paid by the student.
- If the student withdraws from a qualification but has completed some units of competency, then the student will be offered refund for unused tuition fees. However, if the student has commenced study in a particular unit but did not submit any assessments; it will be considered as used tuition fees.
- ARC Training has determined that the student would be unreasonably disadvantaged if a refund did not occur.
- Any refund will be deposited by the Accounts Team to the student’s nominated bank account within 30 days of receiving an approved refund request.
- Enrolment/Administration fee*, credit card or debit success charges are not refundable.

Traineeships

Note: ARC Training will invoice 50% of any student fees on enrolment. The final 50% will be invoiced at midpoint of the program.

- If the Employer cancels the training before course commencement, the employer will not be refunded of the 50% deposit as specified in the ARC Training Service Level Agreement with the employer.

Requesting a Refund

- To request a refund, please contact the ARC Training head office and the form will be sent out by the Administration Team.
- Once completed, the Refund Request Form should be sent through to ARC Training head office for processing via support@arctraining.edu.au, to the attention of the Administration Team.
- The refund application will be reviewed by the Administration Manager and the outcome of the refund will be communicated within 14 days from receipt of the completed Refund Request Form.
- Once approved, the refund will be processed and monies will be transferred by the Accounts team to the student’s nominated bank account within 30 days of the refund request approval date.

*Enrolment Fee of $95.00 is only applicable to Fee for Service Students

Refund Request Form

By completing this form, you are requesting to apply for a partial or full refund of student fees which you have paid to ARC Training. Please note that the first $95.00 is a non-refundable enrolment/administration fee (for Fee For Service students only).

Each refund request will be assessed on its own merits in line with ARC Training's Refund Policy and in line with Consumer Protection Legislation. This form must be lodged to the Attention of the Administration Team via email to support@arctraining.edu.au. If you require special consideration for your application, please provide additional evidence such as a medical certificate, etc.

A response will be issued to you within 14 calendar days if you are successful or unsuccessful. If successful, a refund will be made as per the Refund Policy depending on the circumstances within the 30 days after the refund has been approved.
