

Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure

Purpose

This policy and procedure outlines the process undertaken by ARC Training for receiving, investigating and responding to complaints and appeals in a timely, fair and transparent manner and to ensure the Principles of Natural Justice are applied at each stage.

Scope

This policy applies to prospective students, currently enrolled students and other stakeholders affected by the actions of ARC Training, the staff of ARC Training and any third parties acting on behalf of ARC Training.

Definitions

Appeal	A request by a Complainant to dispute or appeal the outcome of a formal complaint or appeal outcome. For the purpose of this document, the Complainant will be identified as an Appellant once the Complainant has lodged an appeal.
Appellant	A Complainant which has disagreed with an assessment decision reached and wants it to be reviewed.
ASQA	Australian Skills Quality Authority.
Complaint	Dissatisfaction expressed about any aspect of ARC Training's services and activities.
Complainant/Appellant	The prospective Complainant or current Complainant who has lodged the complaint or appeal.
Closed	Where the student failed to provide response despite numerous attempt by ARC Training to communicate, ARC Training will consider the complaint closed.
Stakeholder	Other than individual or group, is a prospective Complainant or current Complainant or staff that has a transactional relationship with ARC Training.
Support Person	A family member, friend or professional support person other than a qualified legal practitioner to support the Complainant/Appellant only.

Aim

To ensure the action or process of receiving and responding to complaints and appeals meets the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 other State and Commonwealth Government funding requirements and all relevant legislation

Policy

1. The Complaints and Appeals policy to be made publicly available on ARC Training website - www.arctraining.com.au;
2. ARC Training provides a process for the receiving and managing of complaints and appeals which is easily understandable and embraces the Principles of Natural Justice, fairness and transparency throughout all stages of the process;
3. Prospective Complainants will be made aware of the Complaints and Appeals process before enrolling into a course through the Complainant Handbook and ARC Training website;
4. Attempts will be made to resolve complaints and appeals with and by the persons involved in a timely manner;
5. All parties involved will have a clear understanding of the steps involved in the complaints and appeals procedure;
6. All complaints and appeals made will be handled professionally and confidentially in order to achieve a satisfactory resolution for the Complainant/Appellant;
7. All complaints and appeals lodged formally by writing will be acknowledged in writing within seven (7) calendar days of being received. ARC Training will conduct investigations and provide the Complainant/Appellant outcome of the complaints/appeals within 14 days from the date the complaint or appeals were lodged.
8. There are no fees associated with ARC Training complaints and appeals process. If Complainants/Appellant refer their complaint and appeal to an independent party costs may be incurred;
9. Types of Complaints/Appeals – Academic and Non-Academic:

Academic	Non-Academic
Course progress	Marketing of qualifications
Assessment outcome and results	Issuance of Certification or Statement of attainment
Plagiarism	Training Facilities
Assessment submission/ resubmissions	Work placement
Discrimination or perceived unfair treatment of trainers to Complainant	Issues and concerns arising from Complainant enrolment
Cancellation or suspension of enrolment

10. ARC Training will maintain the enrolment of the Complainant/Appellant during the complaint or appeals process;
11. Complaint and appeal form to be sent to support@arctraining.edu.au or presented in person at ARC Training office locations;
12. The Complainant/Appellant will not be subject to discrimination or harassment resulting from their participation in the complaints and appeals process;
13. Complaints and appeals lodged will be recorded on the ARC Training Complaints Register within two (2) business days from the date the complaints or appeals were received;
14. The complaints and appeals process does not restrict a person's right to pursue other legal remedies;

15. All complaints and appeals will, where practicable, be finalised within sixty (60) calendar days from date received.
16. All complaints and appeals lodged by a prospective or current Complainant are recorded in the Complaints Register and stored for seven (7) years;
17. Opportunities for improvement that are identified as a result of the complaint and appeal event will be reviewed and recorded in Continuous Improvement Register or a Corrective Action Register.
18. All student complaints will be categorised as "closed" if the student who raised the complaint has failed to respond to ARC Training's numerous attempt to resolve the complaints within 14 calendar days.

Procedure

There are four (4) stages in the complaints and appeals process to acknowledge and support the resolution of Academic and Non-Academic complaints and appeals. Each stage provides an increase in the level of formality with which the complaint/appeal are managed.

The four (4) stages of the complaints and appeals process are:

- Stage 1 – Informal discussion and negotiation between the Complainant and staff member involved and if required the supervisor involved.
- Stage 2 – Formal written complaint lodge to the Compliance or RTO Manager
- Stage 3 – Internal appeal to the Compliance Manager or RTO Manager.
- Stage 4 – External Appeal which may be dealt with by an independent party or an external agency.

Complaints – Academic

Procedure - Informal process:

1. Complainant to establish the basis for complaint; and
2. Discuss their Academic complaint directly with their Trainer and Assessor or Program Coordinator in the first instance to resolve the complaint wherever possible.
3. If the Complainant is satisfied with the outcome provided at this stage no further action is required. If the Complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome, the decision outcome or the time taken to resolve the matter. The Complainant can proceed to make a formal complaint.

Procedure - Formal process:

1. Complainant to access and complete the Complaints and Appeals Form (Appendix 1) to formally seek a resolution. This can be accessed from the ARC Training website or requested from the relevant Program Coordinators. On the Complaints and Appeals form the Complainant is to:
 - a. Record the exact nature and details of the complaint; and
 - b. Sign and date the Complaints and Appeals form; and
 - c. Submit the form to the Compliance Manager through the following avenues:
 - i. Emailed to: Compliance Manager at support@arctraining.edu.au
 - ii. Mailed to: Compliance Manager, ARC Training, PO Box 154 Parramatta 2124.

2. When complaints are received they will be sent to the Compliance Manager and details will be recorded into the Complaints Register. The Compliance Manager will acknowledge the complaints documentation lodged by the Complainant within seven (7) days of receiving the documentation.
3. The Compliance Manager will assess the details of the Complaints and Appeals form and conduct an investigation within fourteen (14) calendar days (inclusive of the seven days mentioned in point 2 above) from the date the complaint was received and:
 - a. investigate of the validity of the complaint and if further information or action is required; and
 - b. provide Complainant access to their records or assessments during this time if requested

When the investigation is complete the Complainant will be contacted by the Compliance Manager or RTO Manager to organise and schedule a meeting whether in person, by cloud-based video conferencing or over the phone to discuss the complaint and the outcome of the investigation into their complaint. In addition;

- a. A Complainant may be assisted by a support person at any meeting throughout the complaints process; and
 - b. All findings of the investigation will be made available to the Complainant; and
 - c. All possible avenues will be considered to address and resolve the complaint.
4. If the Complainant is satisfied with the resolution offered the complaint will be deemed resolved, no further action required and the outcome documented in the complaints register and Complainant's (student) file. After the meeting, the Compliance Manager will send the Complainant a letter within seven (7) calendar days. This letter will outline the outcomes of the complaint, the reasons for the decision and further avenues of the complaint.
 5. Necessary action plan or correction action identified will be implemented to support the resolution offered.
 6. The Complainant will have fourteen (14) calendar days from issuance of the letter to respond to the Compliance Manager if they require further information and/or want to appeal the outcome of the complaint.

Complaints – Non-Academic

Procedure - Informal process:

1. Complainant to establish the basis for complaint; and
2. Discuss their Non-Academic complaint directly with their ARC Training staff member and/or Supervisor in the first instance to resolve the Non-Academic complaint wherever possible.
3. If the Complainant is satisfied with the outcome at this stage. No further action is required. If the Complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome, the decision outcome or the time taken to resolve the matter, the Complainant can proceed to make a formal complaint.

Procedure - Formal process:

1. Complainant to access and complete the Complaints and Appeals Form (Appendix 1) to formally seek a resolution. This can be accessed from the website. On the Complaints and Appeals form ; the Complainant is to:
 - a. Record the details of the Non-Academic complaint
 - b. Sign and date the Complaints and Appeals form
 - c. Submit the form to the Compliance Manager through the following:
 - i. Emailed to: Compliance Managers support@arctraining.edu.au

- ii. Mailed to: Compliance Manager, ARC Training, PO Box 154 Parramatta 2124.
2. When a Non-Academic complaint is received it will be sent to the Compliance Manager and details recorded into the Complaints Register. The Compliance Manager will acknowledge the complaints documentation lodged by the Complainant within seven (7) days of receiving the documentation.
3. Compliance Manager will assess the details of the Complaints and Appeals form and conduct an investigation within fourteen (14) calendar days from the date the complaint was received, Please note that the fourteen days is inclusive of the seven (7) days to acknowledge the complaint;
 - a. Investigate the validity of the Non-Academic complaint and if further information or action is required; and
 - b. Discuss with the relevant ARC Training department manager, team members, stakeholders and witnesses linked with the Non-Academic complaint.
4. Once the complaint is investigated the Complainant will be contacted and a meeting arranged to discuss the matter in person, by cloud-based video conferencing or over the phone to discuss the outcome of the investigation. In addition;
 - a. A Complainant may be assisted by a support person at any meeting throughout the complaints process; and
 - b. All findings of the investigation will be made available to the Complainant; and
 - c. All possible avenues will be considered to address and resolve the complaint as soon as possible.
5. After the meeting, the Compliance Manager will send the Complainant a letter within seven (7) calendar days. This letter will outline the outcomes of the complaint, the reasons for the decision and further avenues of the complaint.
6. If the Complainant is satisfied with the outcome and resolution offered, the complaint will be deemed resolved, no further action required and documented in the complaints register and Complainant's Complainant file.
7. The Complainant will have fourteen (14) calendar days from issuance of the letter to respond to the Compliance Manager if they require further information and/or want to appeal the outcome of the complaint.

Academic and Non-Academic Complaints – beyond 60 days.

1. When the Compliance Manager has determined that it will take more than sixty (60) calendar days to make a decision for any academic or non-academic complaint, the Compliance Manager must advise the Complainant in writing of the delay and include the reasons why more than sixty (60) calendar days are required.
2. Complainant to be provided with regular updates via email from the Compliance Manager to inform them of the progress of the complaint.
3. If the Complainant is satisfied with the resolution offered, the complaint will be deemed resolved and documented in the complaints register and Complainant's Complainant file.

Internal Appeal

1. All enrolled Complainants and stakeholders have the right to appeal decisions made by ARC Training where reasonable grounds can be established. The areas in which an enrolled Complainant or Stakeholder may appeal a decision made by ARC Training may include:
 - Assessment decisions and outcomes made by Trainers and Assessors.
 - Deferral, suspension, or cancellation decisions made in relation to the Complainant's enrolment or conduct or action/inaction
2. To activate the appeals process, the Appellant is to access and complete the Complaints and Appeals Form (Appendix 1). This can be accessed from the ARC Training website. On the Complaints and Appeals form the Complainant is to:
 - a. Lodge an appeal within seven (7) days of receiving a decision you wish to contest or do not agree with, and;
 - b. Provide a summary of the grounds the appeal was based upon, and ;
 - c. The reasons the Complainant feels the decision is unfair which is to be clearly explained, and;

- d. Sign and date the Complaints and Appeals form; and

3. The Compliance Manager will assess the details of the Complaints and Appeals form and conduct a review of the appeal within fourteen (14) calendar days from the date the appeal form was received and;
 - a. Investigate the validity of the appeal and if further information or action is required, and
 - b. Discuss with the relevant ARC Training department manager and team members linked with the original complaint and appeal, and;
 - c. Confirm the original decision made for the complaint and the original outcome reached, and make a decision based on the grounds of the appeal.
 4. Once the appeal is investigated the Appellant will be contacted and offered to attend a meeting (in person, cloud-based video conference or phone) to discuss the appeal or receive an email with written notification of the appeal outcome. The Appellant may be assisted by a support person at the meeting.
 5. The Complaints Register will be updated to capture investigation outcomes and the outcome of the appeal.
 6. If the Appellant is satisfied with the resolution offered, the appeal will be deemed resolved and documented in the complaints register and Complainant's Complainant file.
 7. The Appellant has fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of the meeting or written notification of appeal outcome to contact the Compliance manager to notify if they are not satisfied with the outcome of the appeal and wish to proceed to an external appeal.

Appeal – beyond 60 days.

1. When the Compliance Manager has determined that it will take more than sixty (60) calendar days to make a decision on an appeal, the Compliance Manager must advise the Appellant in writing of the delay and include the reasons why more than sixty (60) calendar days are required.
2. Appellant to be provided with regular updates via email from the Compliance Manager to inform them of the progress of the appeal.
3. If the Appellant is satisfied with the resolution offered, the complaint will be deemed resolved and documented in the complaints register and Appellant's file.

External Appeal

1. If the Appellant remains dissatisfied with the response, decisions or outcomes provided, or the time taken to resolve their complaint and/or appeal through ARC Training's internal complaints and appeals process the Appellant is to be offered the option to proceed to the external appeal process. There may be cost associated when opting to access external appeal process. Any cost must be agreed to between the Complainant/Appellant and ARC Training.
2. Appellant has fourteen (14) calendar days from receiving the written acknowledgment of the appeal outcome to contact the Compliance Manager to notify if they wish to proceed to an external appeal process and to appoint an appropriate independent party to review the matter.
